SECOND PRESEASON GAME

GREEN BAY (0-1) at SEATTLE (1-0)

Saturday, Aug. 21 • Qwest Field • 9 p.m. CDT

GREEN BAY HEADS WEST TO TAKE ON SEATTLE

The Packers travel over 1,600 miles, the longest trip for the team this season, for their second exhibition contest against the Seattle Seahawks.

- ▶ It will be the first road game of the season for Green Bay, and will give the team a valuable look at how the younger players on the roster perform in a hostile environment.
- ▶ Saturday night's game marks just the second time in franchise history that the Packers have traveled to Seattle for a preseason contest. The only other preseason matchup between the teams in Seattle came on Aug. 12, 1983, a 38-21 Seahawks victory.
- ▶ The teams have squared off just three times before in the preseason, with the most recent contest coming on Aug. 18, 2007, at Lambeau Field. The Packers defeated the Seahawks, 48-13, highlighted by 38 points from Green Bay in the first half. The 48 points were the most posted by the Packers in a preseason contest since 1936.
- ▶ Green Bay and Seattle will not face off this year during the regular season after seeing each other quite a bit since 2005. The teams met four times during the regular season (2005, 2006, 2008, 2009), and the lone year that they did not play during the season (2007), the Packers hosted the Seahawks in an NFC Divisional Playoff game at Lambeau Field.
- ▶ The Packers dropped their preseason opener, 27-24, to the Cleveland Browns on Saturday night at Lambeau Field. QB Aaron Rodgers was sharp in his first game action of the season, completing 12-of-13 passes for 159 yards and a TD (143.3 passer rating) as he led the offense on two touchdown drives. WR Greg Jennings had three receptions for 68 yards, including a 25-yard TD pass from Rodgers.
- ▶ Green Bay got off to a slow start against Cleveland, falling behind by two touchdowns less than seven minutes into the game. Browns QB Jake Delhomme led Cleveland on an 11-play, 80-yard drive to go up 7-0, and then the Browns took advantage of the short field provided by a Packers turnover to extend the lead to 14-0.
- ▶ "It's the first preseason game," Head Coach Mike McCarthy said. "We did not start the game the way we should have. So, we're going to address that. And we'll look at the film and we'll look at it as an opportunity to learn from it."
- ▶ Following a long flight home early Sunday morning, the Packers will have a quick turnaround before their next preseason game. Green Bay will take on Indianapolis a week from Thursday in a nationally televised contest at Lambeau Field. In the past under McCarthy, the Packers have played their starters into the third quarter in the third preseason contest, and the defending AFC champion Colts should provide a good measuring stick for Green Bay as it begins to look ahead to the regular season.
- ▶ Seattle won its opening preseason contest on Saturday night, 20-18, over the Tennessee Titans at Qwest Field in head coach Pete Carroll's Seahawks debut. QB Charlie Whitehurst, an offseason trade acquisition and the son of former Packers QB David Whitehurst (1977-83), threw for 214 yards and two TDs to lead the offense in his first game with Seattle.
- ▶ The Seahawks will travel to Minnesota to take on the Vikings on Saturday, Aug. 28, in their third preseason game before finishing up in Oakland on Thursday, Sept. 2.

WITH THE CALL

The Green Bay Packers Broadcast Partners will air the game over a 10-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, Northeastern Minnesota, and the Quad Cities in Iowa, with CBS network production, personnel and the latest network-quality technology.

- ▶ The top-notch broadcast team includes CBS's Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) alongside fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon (analyst).
- ▶ WTMJ's Jessie Garcia serves as the sideline reporter and WFRV's Larry McCarren joins the crew for pre-game segments. In addition to WFRV-TV (Green Bay) and WTMJ-TV (Milwaukee), the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhineland, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire; WYOW/ABC, Eagle River, Wis.; WJMN/CBS, Marquette, Mich.; and KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth, Minn.; and KGCW/CW, Quad Cities in Iowa.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 48-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.
- ▶ The game will also be televised live nationally on NFL Network.

THIS WEEK IN PACKERS NEWS

THE INJURY REPORT

Staying healthy during the preseason is a priority for every team, and the Packers came out of their opening game against Cleveland without any injuries that should cause players to miss significant time.

- ▶ RB Ryan Grant left the game early on after sustaining a concussion on his third carry of the game, and did not return. TE Tom Crabtree headed to the locker room late in the first half with a wrist injury and also did not return.
- ▶ The most notable injury during camp thus far was to LB Clay Matthews, who injured a hamstring during the annual Family Night scrimmage on Aug. 7 that also forced him to miss time last year during the preseason. Matthews is expected to be out for at least another week.
- ▶ Three players have spent all of training camp thus far on the physically unable to perform list. CB Al Harris, making his way back from reconstructive knee surgery, S Atari Bigby, who underwent ankle surgery on Aug. 6, and rookie RB James Starks (hamstring) are all on the PUP list.

AHEAD THIS WEEK

The Packers hit the practice field five times this week, including two-a-days on Tuesday and Thursday before traveling to Seattle on Friday afternoon.

- ▶ Four of those practices are scheduled to be in full pads, though the health of the team heading into Saturday night's game will determine if those numbers stay the same.
- ▶ Thursday will be the final two-a-day session of training camp and seventh overall, with the Packers assuming the in-season schedule of one practice a day for the final two preseason contests.

EXCERPTS FROM COACH MCCARTHY - MONDAY, AUG. 16

▶ (After watching the film, did you see the improvement on special teams that you were looking for?)

"It is one game and it is preseason, no different on offense and defense. You're trying to accomplish a lot of things, and even more so on special teams. Going through each phase, I thought the punt protection was a plus. The changes that we made, I thought they definitely showed up on film. I thought the punters' performance was good. Kickoff coverage was disjointed. A lot of that was we played 30-plus players on kickoff coverage. We have never done that here. We're trying to look at as many different individuals as possible. We exhausted our whole depth chart in the kickoff phase, and I think it showed up in the production in the kickoff coverage and the kickoff return. That is not where we need to be. I'm confident with our kickoff coverage based on the people that we have had here in the past and the way we have played in the past. Our timing and spacing in the kickoff return needs to improve. We'll probably emphasize that more this week as we get ready. Punt return, once again we used a lot of people there. But the kickoff coverage, we'll start to settle in more on certain players, but we do want to make sure we get everybody an opportunity and give them a chance because special teams is where a lot of these jobs are going to be won."

"I thought they graded out well. They came after us with a lot of pressure, so there were a number of things that happened at the line of scrimmage as far as the communication. I thought the quarterback handled it very well. I thought the checks were intact. I thought the first offensive line played well. I wouldn't say that about the second offensive line."

▶ (Do you see any of the young wide receivers pushing for a roster spot?)

"They're improving. Dillon continues to jump out at me. That's the first one that comes to mind. Gore, it's new for him. Chery just arrived. They're not getting the work that that group has probably gotten in the past. That's a tough group to crack as far as the four or five guys in front of them. But they're getting better. That's what you're looking for."

"I think Matt Flynn has continued to improve since he arrived here. I thought he made a big jump from Year 1 to Year 2, and he definitely has total command of the offense, and that's what you expect of your quarterback. We feel very confident to play with him through all the different things we do at the line, both run and pass. I thought he managed the game very well. Once again, I thought he was put in a couple of tough spots, maybe a couple of throws he wish he may have hit. But I thought he played well."

▶ (You have said good things about Brandon Jackson as a third-down back, but how comfortable would you be if he had to carry the load in a game?)

"Brandon Jackson to me is an every-down back. I have no problem with that. Really the last hurdle he needed to overcome was on third down. He accomplished that last year, in my opinion. You're seeing him not only third downs but in special teams. Brandon Jackson is a good special teams player, too. He's a complete football player, and if we had to play all three downs with him, I wouldn't even blink."

WHERE THEY'LL BE SATURDAY NIGHT

PACKERS OVERCOME TOUGH START BUT FALL SHORT

The Packers' 2010 preseason opener had a little bit of everything Saturday night at Lambeau Field. Sloppy defense and a turnover put Green Bay in an early 14-point hole before the No. 1 offense climbed out of it. But then Cleveland's veteran kicker, Phil Dawson, drilled field goals from 58 and 46 yards in the final minute and a half to give the Browns a 27-24 win.

► Behind new quarterback Jake Delhomme, the Browns took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. A fourth-down pass for 12 yards to Mohamed Massaquoi was the key play, and Jerome Harrison's 4-yard TD run made it 7-0.

► Moments later, that lead was doubled when Packers running back Ryan Grant fumbled on the offense's first snap. Cleveland's Sheldon Brown recovered and returned it to the Green Bay 13, setting up Seneca Wallace's third-down TD pass to Brian Robiskie. Suddenly it was 14-0 less than halfway through the first quarter.

► "You don't start football games that way," Head Coach Mike McCarthy said. "It doesn't matter who you're playing, where you're playing, especially at Lambeau Field. It's a learning experience for our football team."

► To the Packers' credit, they bounced back quickly. Grant left the game after taking a blow to the head on his third carry, but then quarterback Aaron Rodgers caught fire. In a span of 11 plays covering two drives – with the defense finally settling down and getting a three-and-out in between – Rodgers completed 10 straight passes to produce two TD drives.

► On the first, two completions to tight end Jermichael Finley covered 30 total yards before Rodgers saw the Browns setting up a corner blitz, which left receiver Greg Jennings one-on-one with safety T.J. Ward. Rodgers checked to a different play at the line to take advantage of the matchup, running back Brandon Jackson blocked the blitz, and Jennings won his battle for a 25-yard touchdown.

► "It just tells me that I'm seeing the game the way I want to see it, to be able to check off there," Rodgers said. "We did a nice job. We picked up the pressure there, bringing a corner blitz. We checked the protection, Brandon had a nice pick-up, and Greg ran a nice route to get open. And had a nice catch on an underthrown ball. That felt good, definitely."

► Rodgers kept it going on the next drive, again finding Jennings (three catches, 68 yards) deep for a 34-yard gain. Jackson's 2-yard run broke up the string of nine straight pass plays, but then Rodgers dumped it off to Jackson for his 10th straight completion, an 11-yarder down to the 2. Fullback John Kuhn, with impressive second and third efforts to keep his feet, found the goal line and the game was tied at 14 early in the second quarter.

► "We feel like we should score every time we get the ball," Rodgers said. "Every time we take that field we're expecting to put points on the board, it's just a matter of executing for us. When we execute the way we're capable of executing, it's tough to guard us."

► Unfortunately, a failed third down on the offense's next possession ended the hot streak, and Rodgers' night. He finished 12-of-13 for 159 yards with a touchdown and 143.3 rating.

► "I thought Aaron was sharp," McCarthy said. "He managed the huddle very well, saw a lot of pressure and made the appropriate checks. He took advantage of the one-on-one opportunities.

► "To play against our defense every day in practice and then to come out here and see the amount of pressure we saw tonight, those are good things to help you prepare because I can promise Philadelphia is going to pressure us in Week 1. So there is going to be a lot of good film to learn from."

► The game had the feel of a shootout, and that's certainly not what the Packers' defense wanted. With Green Bay beginning some substitutions here and there on defense, the Browns regained the lead right away, as Wallace led a 63-yard drive. His 26-yard screen pass to fullback Peyton Hillis and 20-yard TD pass to tight end Benjamin Watson over the middle put Cleveland back on top, 21-14.

► "We had those type of games last year, and we can't allow that to happen again this year," cornerback Charles Woodson said of the back-and-forth play. "There's some things we're going to have to fix. Defensively, we're not at all happy with how we played."

► Backup quarterback Matt Flynn was able to re-tie the game on the opening possession of the third quarter. A 22-yard pass to James Jones keyed the 78-yard drive. On third-and-5 from the Cleveland 20, Flynn's pass into the end zone to Jordy Nelson was incomplete, but Browns safety Nick Sorensen was called for pass interference, putting the ball on the 1. Gregg Lumpkin (11 carries, 42 yards) took it in from there to make it 21-all.

► That was Flynn's only scoring drive, as he finished 9-of-15 for 69 yards with an interception, on a Hail Mary at the end of the first half. He nearly produced another score, though, after Green Bay safety Derrick Martin made a sliding interception of a Colt McCoy pass at the Cleveland 37 late in the third quarter.

► Lumpkin busted a 12-yard run to the 25 and it appeared the Packers might take the lead. But a Lumpkin fumble (recovered by Green Bay tackle Breno Giacomini), a holding penalty on Allen Barbre and a sack/fumble of Flynn (with Flynn recovering) knocked the Packers out of scoring range.

► With No. 3 quarterback Graham Harrell in the game, the Packers took their only lead of the night. Rookie running back Quinn Porter's six carries for 22 yards helped set up a 33-yard field goal by Mason Crosby for a 24-21 advantage with 7:07 left. Porter finished with nine rushes for 38 yards.

► After the Packers went three-and-out, Ratliff converted a fourth-and-6 at midfield with a 10-yard pass to Smith. Then he hit former Packers receiver Jake Allen for a 12-yard gain to the Green Bay 28 and called Cleveland's last timeout with 2 seconds left. Dawson was true from 46 yards on the final snap.

GAME NOTES

► Safeties Atari Bigby (ankle) and Will Blackmon (knee), cornerback Al Harris (knee), running back James Starks (hamstring), linebackers Alex Joseph (quad), Clay Matthews (hamstring) and Cyril Obiozor (calf), and guard/center Jason Spitz (calf) did not dress for the game.

2010 TRAINING CAMP

LOTS OF FAMILIAR FACES

General Manager Ted Thompson continued his philosophy of building through the draft in the 2010 offseason, so much of the Packers' core remains intact.

- ▶ Thompson moved to keep that core together this offseason, re-signing veterans Chad Clifton, Nick Collins, Ryan Pickett and Mark Tauscher to contract extensions.
- ▶ Clifton and Tauscher have been mainstays on the offensive line since 2000, while Collins and Pickett were two integral parts of the new 3-4 defense in 2009.
- ▶ The return of those four players means 20 of 22 starters return from a team that made its second postseason berth in three seasons.
- ▶ Leaving in free agency was Aaron Kampman, one of the most productive pass rushers in team history. Having made the switch to outside linebacker last summer, Kampman tore his ACL on Nov. 22, which put rookie Brad Jones into the lineup.
- ▶ Jones went on to start eight games including playoffs, so some may view him as a 21st returning starter.
- ▶ The team will be without defensive end Johnny Jolly, who was suspended indefinitely by the NFL for violating the NFL Policy and Program for Substances of Abuse. Jolly's suspension began immediately in July and will continue through at least the 2010 season. He will be eligible to apply for reinstatement following Super Bowl XLV.
- ▶ That continuity extends to the coaching staff, where the same group returns for 2010. There are some slight changes however, as Chad Morton will serve as special teams assistant while Curtis Fuller serves as coaching administrator.
- ▶ Also, Mark Lovat, beginning his 12th season with the Packers, takes over as strength and conditioning coordinator. Dave Redding and Thadeus Jackson will serve as assistants in the weight room.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. This summer, eyes will be on the seven new draft picks added to the club this past April.

- ▶ First-round pick Bryan Bulaga, the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2009, is viewed as the potential heir to veteran Chad Clifton as Aaron Rodgers' blind-side protector and has entered the LG competition. He started 23 games at left tackle over his final two seasons and was an early-entry candidate into the 2010 NFL Draft.
- ▶ The Packers stayed in the Big Ten in Round 2 by selecting Purdue defensive tackle Mike Neal. A four-year letterman and two-year starter, he played in 46 career games (23 starts) and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from the media as a senior. Neal will make the shift to defensive end in the Packers' 3-4 scheme.
- ▶ Third-round choice Morgan Burnett was another early-entry candidate and displayed his playmaking skills at safety in his three seasons at Georgia Tech. In 40 career games, including 28 starts, Burnett intercepted 14 passes, tied for second most in school history. He was elected team captain as a junior and led the team in interceptions each of his three seasons.
- ▶ In the fifth round the Packers again went back to the Big Ten and drafted Penn State tight end Andrew Quarless. He appeared in 49 career games, including 29 starts, and finished his career as the Nittany Lions' all-time leader in receptions by a tight end (87) and second in receiving yards by a tight end (1,146).
- ▶ Also in the fifth round the Packers drafted offensive lineman Marshall Newhouse from Texas Christian. He was a three-year starter at left tackle and appeared in 52 career games, including 38 starts. A first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection as a senior, Newhouse has seen at tackle and guard on the left side.
- ▶ Running back James Starks came to Green Bay in the sixth round. Starks became the University at Buffalo's all-time leading rusher in just three seasons and holds school records for rushing touchdowns (34) and points scored (222). He missed all of 2009 with a shoulder injury and has been sidelined during camp thus far with a hamstring injury.
- ▶ The Packers selected C.J. Wilson from East Carolina in the seventh round. A three-year starter at defensive end, he tallied 192 tackles, including 45½ for loss, and 27 sacks. He earned first-team All-Conference USA honors each of his final two seasons.
- ▶ In addition to the seven draft picks, one must also pay close attention to the non-drafted free agents, as at least one seems to make the team each year. Members of the Packers who entered the NFL via the free-agent route include S Atari Bigby, RB Ryan Grant, TE Spencer Havner, DE Cullen Jenkins and CB Tramon Williams.

REST AND RECOVERY

In today's NFL, training camp is no longer a time to get in shape and learn new wrinkles in the playbook.

- ▶ Most of the roster was back for the offseason program, which began on March 15 and ran through the mandatory, three-day minicamp at the end of June. Beginning with dedicated workout sessions under the close watch of the strength and conditioning staff, activities returned to the playing field later in the spring during OTAs.
- ▶ With that offseason work in mind, Head Coach Mike McCarthy has scheduled his camp with three Wednesdays off to help the players recuperate from the grind of training camp.
- ▶ Much like the regular season, players will not practice the day after preseason games or after the Family Night scrimmage. The Packers also received three Wednesdays off during camp, with the final one coming this week.
- ▶ Those Wednesdays the team will gather in the morning for weight lifting, film review and team meetings before having the afternoon and evening off. Each off day is following by two practices in one day, including the final "two-a-day" of training camp on Aug. 19.

ST. NORBERT AND THE PACKERS

Continuing a tradition started under Packers coach Scooter McLean in 1958, the Green Bay Packers will call St. Norbert College home for a 53rd consecutive training camp this summer. The relationship between the private college in De Pere, Wis., and the Green Bay Packers marks the longest continual use of any training camp facility by an NFL team.

- ▶ Players will take up residence in Victor McCormick Hall, a 60-room coed dormitory used to house 225 students during the academic year.
- ▶ St. Norbert, founded in 1898 by Abbot Bernard Pennings, borders the Fox River and enrolls around 2,000 students.
- ▶ The Packers use their own practice and team meeting facilities at Lambeau Field during training camp, with the college serving as housing headquarters.
- ▶ Players return to St. Norbert via cars and vans every evening for team dinner.
- ▶ The 6.62-mile commute is estimated at 11 minutes each way.
- ▶ The team will travel roughly 264.8 miles between the college and practice facility during training camp...that's almost 4,660 lengths of a football field. It will take an estimated 7 hours, 20 minutes for the team to commute to and from the college...roughly the time of two-and-a-half NFL games.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 90th NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by six nationally televised games – was released in late April.

- ▶ Though the 2010 opponents have been known since the end of last season, the arrival of the complete NFL schedule is a day circled on the calendar of all football fans.
- ▶ Green Bay will open the 2010 slate on the road at Philadelphia before kicking off the home schedule with the Buffalo Bills in Week 2.
- ▶ Its first prime-time appearance – against the rival Bears in Chicago on Monday Night Football – will come in Week 3. The NFL's oldest rivalry will be on display in prime time for a fifth straight season, with this first meeting of the year marking game No. 180 in the all-time series.
- ▶ 2010 marks the 18th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on Monday Night Football, the NFC's longest streak.
- ▶ Three games are slated for Sunday night on NBC, including home games against the Minnesota Vikings (Week 7) and Dallas Cowboys (Week 9). In Week 15, the Packers are scheduled to take on the Patriots on Sunday night in Foxborough, though the game is subject to the NFL's flex scheduling.
- ▶ The Packers will get their first look at the new stadium in New Jersey in Week 8 against the Jets, where they may experience some cool fall temperatures. While games at Lambeau Field later in the season always provide a home-field advantage for the Packers, the 2010 schedule is nearly void of cold-weather road games. After the Jets, three consecutive road contests will be played in domes (Minnesota, Atlanta, Detroit).
- ▶ That's good news for a Green Bay offense that seems to thrive in domes. Including playoffs, the Packers played in a dome five times last season, exceeding 400 total net yards in four of those games.
- ▶ A number of games on the Packers' 2010 schedule – namely those on national TV – are beginning to have a familiar feel. In addition to taking on the Bears for a fifth consecutive year in prime time, Green Bay will take on Minnesota in prime time for a third straight season. The Packers and Cowboys will meet on national TV for the fourth straight season.
- ▶ The schedule concludes with two home games for the first time since 2005. One of the NFL's best teams in regular-season games played in December and January, Green Bay may need to call upon that previous success for what could prove to be two very important contests surrounding the Christmas and New Year's holidays. Games against the Giants (Week 16) and Bears (Week 17) could determine not only the NFC North Division crown but conference playoff seeding.

2010 SCHEDULE NUGGETS

Green Bay's bye week comes in Week 10, the latest possible week for NFL teams. It marks the latest time in which the Packers have had a bye in franchise history, besting the Week 9 bye in 2004. The Packers will play nine games before the bye and seven after the open date.

- ▶ Three of four games before the bye come at Lambeau Field, while four of five games after the bye are road contests.
- ▶ Immediately following the bye comes an important division game against Minnesota, the first of three straight road games played in domes. Under McCarthy, the team has won three of four games after the bye week and 10 of its last 14 after the bye dating back further.
- ▶ Green Bay has always been a successful team after the bye and 2009 was no different, as the team compiled a 9-3 (.750) mark after the bye week. Since 2000, the team is 61-36 (.629) overall after the bye.
- ▶ Fifteen games are slated for Sunday, the most since 1993 (also 15).
- ▶ Seven of the final eight games are against NFC opponents.
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2009 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 at Philadelphia. Beginning in Week 7 vs. Minnesota, Green Bay has a stretch of four straight games against playoff teams from a year ago. The team will travel east to take on the Jets in Week 8 and host the Cowboys in Week 9 before the bye. The stretch concludes in Minnesota in Week 11.
- ▶ The NFL's oldest rivalry will see a first in 2010. For the first time in series history, Green Bay will host Chicago in the regular-season finale, set to be game No. 181 between the Packers and Bears.

POSITION-BY-POSITION

BY THE NUMBERS

Nothing attracts more attention during training camp, both from fans and media, than positional battles. Here's a look at the Packers' current roster. Just a quick note – the first number is the number of players at that position currently on the roster, while the second is the number at the position during Week 1 last season.

Quarterback – 3 (2)

► In his first two years under center in Green Bay, Aaron Rodgers proved he was tough, durable and accurate. Now, after throwing for 4,434 yards and 30 touchdowns, he is considered among the game's best young players regardless of position. Still only 26 years old, the sky is the limit for Rodgers in his sixth NFL season.

► Behind Rodgers is third-year signal caller Matt Flynn, who saw his most extensive game action in 2009. Flynn has served as the No. 2 quarterback in each of his first two NFL seasons and will look to impress in preseason action after an injury kept him out of most game action last summer.

► Also at the position is first-year player Graham Harrell, who set numerous NCAA records including career TD passes and completions while at Texas Tech (2005-08).

Running back – 5 (3)

► Ryan Grant, one of only three players in team annals to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, again serves as the lead back. He established career highs in rushing yards, rushing TDs and receiving yards in '09.

► Behind Grant is fourth-year pro Brandon Jackson. A capable backup, Jackson excelled on third down last season both in the screen game and in pass protection.

► The team has traditionally kept three running backs, so the trio of Kregg Lumpkin, Quinn Porter and James Starks will be a group to watch in August. Lumpkin made the 53-man roster in 2008 and spent last season on the practice squad.

► Starks and Porter serve as the newcomers to the group. A sixth-round draft pick in April, Starks became the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards, rushing TDs and points scored in just three seasons. He missed all of 2009 due to a shoulder injury and has been sidelined during camp thus far due to a hamstring injury. Porter, a non-drafted free agent from Stillman College (Tuscaloosa, Ala.), could also get a chance to impress on punt and kickoff return.

Fullback – 3 (3)

► Last year the team kept three fullbacks, and all three return in 2010. Certainly this will be among the positions most watched when it comes down to the 53-man roster cutdown.

► Both Korey Hall and John Kuhn have extensive experience over the past three seasons. While both have made contributions on offense, they have served as standouts on the special teams coverage units.

► Quinn Johnson saw action in nine games as a rookie in 2009, and at 263 pounds, can bring a physical presence to the position.

► Special teams may be the ultimate factor at fullback. If each of the three can prove to be among the most indispensable on the cover and return units, it's clear the team is comfortable with keeping three on the roster.

Wide receiver – 10 (5)

► Veterans Donald Driver and Greg Jennings form a dangerous 1-2 combination on the outside. Jennings has topped the 1,000-yard mark each of the last two seasons, while Driver has topped the mark for six straight years and seven of the last eight.

► James Jones and Jordy Nelson both enjoyed solid campaigns in 2009 and help form great depth at the position. With so many multi-wideout formations, and an offense that puts up prolific numbers through the air, both players will have ample opportunities to produce.

► Brett Swain showed terrific skills on special teams before a knee injury ended his '09 season, and Patrick Williams spent four weeks on the active roster to end the year. Jason Chery, Charles Dillon, Shawn Gore and Chastin West will all look to make their mark in their first training camp in Green Bay.

Tight end – 5 (3)

► Tight end serves as one of the deepest positions on the team, which has to please Head Coach Mike McCarthy, who often uses multiple tight end sets in the offensive scheme.

► Jermichael Finley won't sneak up on anyone this season as he has emerged as one of the bright young talents at his position. Blessed with rare size and speed, he is coming off a breakout season in 2009, including a franchise playoff-record 159 yards receiving in the Wild Card playoff.

► Veteran Donald Lee has recorded at least 35 receptions for three straight seasons and is a reliable target for Rodgers. Few 2009 storylines were better than the emergence of Spencer Havner, a converted linebacker and special-teams ace who caught four touchdowns.

► Andrew Quarless, a fifth-round draft choice this past April from Penn State, brings another big-bodied athlete to the group, while Tom Crabtree returns after finishing the year on the team's practice squad.

Offensive line – 14 (9)

► All five starters from a year ago return, but that doesn't mean there won't be competition along the line.

► Veterans Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher both re-signed this off-season. The duo has held down the tackle spots since 2000. First-round pick Bryan Bulaga will get to learn from Clifton at left tackle while also entering the competition at left guard. Second-year man T.J. Lang will get a look at right tackle as well as inside. Breno Giacomini also will be in the mix at right tackle.

► Many eyes will be focused on the battle inside, where a number of players with starting experience are in competition. Josh Sitton is an emerging player at right guard, where he started all 16 games in 2009. Jason Spitz returns from a back injury that sidelined him for nearly all of 2009 and could compete with veterans Daryn Colledge (left guard) and Scott Wells (center) for a spot in the lineup.

► Also competing along the inside are fourth-year man Allen Barbre, second-year pro Evan Dietrich-Smith and fifth-round draft choice Marshall Newhouse. Rookie free agents Chris Campbell (tackle) and Nick McDonald (guard) will also look to compete for a roster spot.

Defensive end – 7 (4)

► One of the more intriguing position groups in training camp, the defensive end group will be led by veterans Cullen Jenkins and Ryan Pickett. Jenkins started all 16 games last season in the new defense, finished second on the club with 4.5 sacks, and provided stellar run support that helped the Packers finish No. 1 against the run. Pickett, a nose tackle last year, made the switch to end this offseason. No matter where he has played, be it a 4-3 defensive tackle or 3-4 nose, Pickett has excelled as a space eater and run stopper. Given his experience at the nose position last year, he can also play inside if needed.

- ▶ Justin Harrell and Jarius Wynn have a chance to be in the rotation. Wynn saw action in 11 games as a rookie in 2009, while Harrell missed all of last season with a back injury. Also, Ronald Talley, who spent last year on the practice squad, will be in the mix.
- ▶ Two players who have the chance to make an early impact at end are rookie draft picks Mike Neal (second round) and C.J. Wilson (seventh round). Neal was a two-year starter at defensive tackle for Purdue, while Wilson earned first-team all-conference accolades his final two seasons at East Carolina. How quickly each grasps a new position and the playbook will determine his ability to make an early impact.

Nose tackle – 2 (2)

- ▶ The Packers kept only first-round pick B.J. Raji and Pickett last season, so those trying to figure out where the Packers go with the 53-man roster will be paying close attention to this position.
- ▶ Raji enters camp as the starter after flashing as a rookie a year ago. While injuries slowed his performance out of the gate, he became a solid contributor along the line toward the end of the season, showing his potential in both run and pass defense. Most of his first season was spent at either end position or as a down lineman in the nickel package, but he was repped extensively at the nose this offseason.
- ▶ Anthony Toribio has spent time on the team's practice squad each of the last two seasons and is familiar with the scheme.

Linebacker – 12 (9)

- ▶ This position undergoes far less transition than it did one year ago. Last season, the team kept nine linebackers, five of whom played outside and four of whom were in the middle.
- ▶ All four of those inside linebackers return and make up what could be argued is the deepest position on the team. Nick Barnett, Desmond Bishop and A.J. Hawk all saw significant playing time in both base and sub packages. Barnett and Hawk served as the two in base, while defensive coordinator Dom Capers came up with packages such as 'Big Okie' and 'Psycho' to get Bishop and Chillar on the field.
- ▶ On the outside, the team will depend upon second-year pro Clay Matthews, and veteran Brandon Chillar, who has been lining up at right outside linebacker this preseason after working on the inside last year. Matthews surpassed expectations in collecting his first Pro Bowl appearance and a double-digit sack season. Chillar has been the team's primary cover man at LB over the past two seasons, and also has pass-rushing ability.
- ▶ Rookie free agent Alex Joseph (Temple) and first-year player Robert Francois will look to make their mark at one of the inside linebacker spots, while a host of players led by veteran Brady Poppinga and second-year man Brad Jones will compete for time at outside linebacker. Poppinga, heading into his sixth NFL season, is the most experienced of the group. Jones, who was forced into the lineup as a rookie because of injuries, collected four sacks over the final five regular-season games and remained a contributor on special teams.
- ▶ Second-year man Cyril Obiozor spent the entire season with the club last year, first on the practice squad and then the final five regular-season games and an appearance in the playoffs. Non-drafted free agent

Frank Zombo (Central Michigan) also has an opportunity to make an impression as a backup on the outside.

Cornerback – 8 (6)

- ▶ All Charles Woodson did last season was have one of the most dominating seasons ever at his position, justly taking home NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors to become the first cornerback to do so since Deion Sanders in 1994.
- ▶ Used a number of different ways by Capers because of his intelligence and innate abilities, the Packers will look for Woodson to continue to cause havoc all over the field.
- ▶ Woodson's partner at the position, Al Harris, is coming off ACL surgery after suffering the injury Nov. 22. Though he may be held out of drills early on in camp, it would be unwise to count out Harris, a player who overcame long odds before ascending to a Pro Bowl level.
- ▶ Tramon Williams has continued to get better, and the fourth-year pro will be counted on heavily as Harris returns to action. He has ample experience, with 48 games and 20 starts already under his belt.
- ▶ Pat Lee and Brandon Underwood are two players who will be watched closely during camp. Lee, a second-round pick in 2008, has been limited to five games in two seasons after dealing with injuries, while Underwood played in 11 games last season as a rookie. Both could work their way into the nickel and dime defense with a good camp.
- ▶ Jarrett Bush remains one of the team's best special teams players and saw extended action from scrimmage last season. Young players D.J. Clark and Sam Shields also will get an opportunity in their first training camp in Green Bay.

Safety – 7 (4)

- ▶ Securing back-to-back Pro Bowl berths has solidified Nick Collins' status as one of the game's best at his position. Opposite Collins, however, will be where most of the focus is in the back end.
- ▶ Atari Bigby notched 11 starts in '09, but has been sidelined during training camp due to an ankle injury that required surgery on Aug. 6. Bigby's absence has given the coaches a look at third-round pick Morgan Burnett, an early-entry candidate who led Georgia Tech in interceptions each of his three seasons.
- ▶ Adding to the intrigue at the position are candidates such as Will Blackmon, the team's primary return man who is making the switch from corner and is coming off ACL surgery, and Derrick Martin, one of the club's finest special teams players. Veteran Charlie Peprah and rookie free agent Anthony Levine will be in contention for a backup spot as well.

Specialists – 4 (3)

- ▶ Though no specialist job in the NFL could ever be deemed secure, kicker Mason Crosby and long snapper Brett Goode are the only players at their respective positions on the roster. Solid performances in camp and in preseason action should earn each a roster spot.
- ▶ The team knows it will have a new punter in 2010, as Chris Bryan and Tim Masthay will compete this month for those duties. Masthay spent last summer with the Indianapolis Colts, while Bryan, a former Australian rules football player, will be seeing his first game action.
